To,

Sir,

I have the honor to submit herewith an unused Stamp paper of Rs. 5/ purchased by Akkayya and others on 28th December 1900 and produced on 20.7.01 for the refund of its value =

The Stamp paper, as appears from the Amildar's report, was purchased for executing a Sale deed on it, and owing to some dispute among the executants' brothers the sale did not take effect and the Stamp paper became useless. The applicants state that the delay in applying for the refund of Stamp value to them, was partly owing to the dispute among the brothers about the Sale of property and partly owing to the illness of one of the applicants.

The value of the Stamp paper may be ordered to be refunded to the applicants subject to the deduction of the usual discount.

I have the honor to be,
Sir,
Your most obedt servant,
